Dear Ms. Rizzo:

Thank you for your recent request on behalf of The Breast Cancer Fund.

Revlon is committed to providing our consumers with the safest products. Although it is not common practice for our company to sign pledges, we would like to assure you that all products sold by Revlon are currently in full compliance with both the United States F.D.A. and EU regulations, including EU Directives 76/768 EEC. Revlon will continue to stringently follow regulatory guidelines to ensure that our products are safe for our consumers.

Again, thank you for your concern.

Sincerely,
